

Donald Keith Ginn, 67, of Kokomo, MS, passed away on the 12th of November, 2023 at 4:20 p.m. from stage four Pancreatic Cancer. He was born on the 26th of May, 1956, in Jackson, MS. Donald had a diverse career, including twelve years at Liberty Mutual in McComb, where he rose to the position of manager. He also worked in the world of antiques alongside Jennings Gilmore and spent time as a car salesman. Donald concluded his work career at Piggly Wiggly in Tylertown, MS.

He is survived by his ex-wife Paula McPhearson, his children Brian, John, and Michael, his grandchildren Tirzah, Terah, Trinity, Tareese, and John Lucas, and his sister Teresa. Donald is predeceased by his mom and dad, Imogene and Eugene, and his brother Berkeley.

Donald was renowned for his intense love of football, with the Saints and Alabama ranking among his favorite teams. Sundays were synonymous with Donald enjoying a game on TV while simultaneously listening to a broadcasted game on the radio.

Outside of work, Donald cherished spending time outdoors with his boys. Summer and fall were particularly joyous times filled with football, basketball, kickball, and fishing.

A private family service will be held in Kokomo, MS. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to pancreatica.org.

The family extends their heartfelt appreciation for the support and condolences during this challenging time.
